AN EMBLEMATIC PLACE ON THE CÔTE FLEURIE.

Reine des Plages

Trouville-sur-Mer, Normandy's oldest seaside resort. The Cures Marines, a majestic 19th-century edifice, adorns the coastline bordering the « Reine des Plages », the largest sandy beach on the Côte Fleurie. « Pleasant in all weathers » : that's how Trouville lovers describe the town. And rightly so. A true haven of peace, the Normandy seaside resort has been popular for decades. A perfect holiday destination, Trouville's charm lies in its boardwalk and beach, its bustling fishing port, its invigorating iodine air and its heights offering panoramic views over the Pays d'Auge. A guaranteed change of scenery just 2 hours from Paris !

The seaside legend

Destined to be the largest casino in Europe, the building was inaugurated in 1912 under the leadership of Eugène Cornuché. The prestigious site was then transformed into a living space where the benefits of the sea are sublimated. In 1950, a thalassotherapy center was opened in the western part of the Casino under the name « Les Cures Marines ». Thanks to the determination of a few visionaries, Les Cures Marines still stands today, facing the sea, perpetuating the tradition of sea bathing.
